

ASBO 403(b) Model Plan LinkedIn Ad Posts

Individual Sales Rep Post Samples

Sample Copy	Suggested Graphic or Image
Developing an RFP. Coordinating with a compliance TPA. Managing multiple providers. For many school districts, overseeing a 403(b) plan can feel complex. The ASBO International 403(b) Model Plan is an administrative framework districts can reference when evaluating plan oversight and compliance support. Participating providers, including <company name>, work independently within the framework. If helpful, I'm happy to share general information and local perspective here in <Geography>. Want to learn more? Check out the link here: ASBO Model Plan Landing Page - Daybright
Federal oversight of school district retirement plans continues to increase, prompting many districts to review how their 403(b) plans are structured and administered. The ASBO International 403(b) Model Plan offers a standardized administrative framework that districts can consider when evaluating compliance and governance approaches. Participating providers operate independently within the framework. Want to learn more? Check out the link here: ASBO Model Plan Landing Page - Daybright

Managing a 403(b) plan involves ongoing administrative and compliance considerations.

The ASBO International 403(b) Model Plan is a framework available to K–12 school districts seeking a structured approach to plan oversight. Participating providers support districts that choose to align with the framework.

Learn how the framework works:

ASBO Model Plan | Landing Page - Daybright

If you work with school districts, you've likely seen increased attention on 403(b) plan governance and compliance.

The ASBO International 403(b) Model Plan provides an administrative framework districts can use as a reference point when reviewing plan structure and oversight. Participating providers operate independently within the framework.

Additional details here:

ASBO Model Plan | Landing Page - Daybright

Federal oversight of school district retirement plans continues to evolve.

The ASBO International 403(b) Model Plan was developed as a resource for districts seeking a standardized administrative framework to reference when evaluating compliance and plan management considerations.

Learn more about the framework:

ASBO Model Plan | Landing Page - Daybright

Company Level Suggested Posts

Sample Copy	Suggested Graphic or Image
Managing a school district’s retirement plan can involve multiple administrative and compliance considerations. The ASBO International 403(b) Model Plan is an administrative framework available to K–12 public school districts. Participating providers, including <Company Name>, support districts that choose to align with the framework. Learn more about the Model Plan framework: ASBO Model Plan Landing Page - Daybright
School districts across the country continue to evaluate their 403(b) plan governance and compliance processes. The ASBO International 403(b) Model Plan offers a standardized framework that districts can reference when reviewing plan oversight. Participating providers support administration and compliance services independently within the framework. Learn more here: ASBO Model Plan Landing Page - Daybright
As expectations around 403(b) plan governance continue to increase, some districts are reviewing how their plans are structured and administered. The ASBO International 403(b) Model Plan is a framework designed to support administrative consistency and compliance evaluation. Participating providers operate independently within the framework. Learn more about the Model Plan: : ASBO Model Plan Landing Page - Daybright	